Make Your Application Stand Out!

We believe that project sponsors are some of the best resources for our members' professional and personal development. We ask that you and your staff get positively and proactively involved with your team around four primary areas of member development:

- Service-Learning
- Communication
- Coaching
- Feedback

If your project involves any of the following elements of interest, please highlight them in your application.

- Project includes a range of service experiences for the team
- Service recipients are veterans or military families
- Service includes mitigation, preparation, or recovery from disasters
- Service includes coordinating or recruiting other volunteers
- Service has high community exposure for the team (media, interaction with public officials)
- Service addresses priorities identified by state leaders
- Service includes specific plans to recruit future NCCC members from your local area institutions such as high schools, career and vocational schools, colleges, and other youth programs
- Social media posts about the project
